

I wish I could have been in Hartford in person today.

Please stop assault weapons from being sold and used. They have no place on our streets, in our schools or anywhere besides in military battle.

After Newtown my tearful son asked me, "Why doesn't somebody do something?"

I implore you to do something. Today.

Rita Burke
Stamford, CT 06902

Sent from my iPad